

Bankish Lite

Privacy Notice

Bankish Lite provides B2B and B2C services. Our aim, at this point, is to use our website to provide you the possibility to be informed about our progress, give us feedback, and receive invitation to use the solution among the first ones in the market.

This Privacy Notice describes how Bankish collects, uses, processes, and discloses your information, including personal information when you decide to leave us your contact information through our web form.

If you have any questions related to this notice or in case of any suspected infringement of your personal rights, please contact us at bankishlite@bankish.eu .

What personal data we collect

Through our web form we collect your e-mail address, your main interest from drop-down list and additional comments or questions submitted by you.

For what purposes your personal data is processed

We will use submitted information to send you Bankish Lite newsletters about our product developments and we may invite you to the product related interviews. The aim of such interviews is to validate the Bankish Lite product and its functionalities from the user's perspective.

Legal basis

The lawful basis for the processing of personal data is your freely given consent as you decide to give us your contact information. You can withdraw your consent at any time by using the unsubscribe functionality in newsletter or by sending us the request at bankishlite@bankish.eu .

Recipients with whom personal data may be shared

Any data you provide will not be publicly displayed or shared to other users. Certain Bankish employees have access to personal data to the extent necessary for the performance of their work duties.

Data subject's rights

Right to access. Any user may get information regarding his/her personal data.

Right to data portability. Any user has the right to receive their personal data from us in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format and to independently transmit those data to a third party, in case our processing is based on user's consent or fulfilling the contract and carried out by automated means.

Right to erasure. Any user has the right to have personal data we process about the user erased from our systems if the personal data are no longer necessary for the related purposes.

To exercise any of the abovementioned rights, the user should contact Bankish support. We may reject requests that are unreasonably repetitive, excessive, or manifestly unfounded.

Data retention

We do not store the personal data for longer than is necessary for fulfilling the described purpose. We erase personal data after the purpose is met or when the user requests us to erase his/her personal data. In the event of a dispute, the personal data will be retained until an agreement is reached or until the due date for the claim expires. The personal data is stored in secure servers in the European Union.

Changes

We may update this Privacy Notice at any time if required to reflect changes in our data processing practices, in personal data protection laws or otherwise.

We will update this Privacy Notice when the Bankish Lite product goes live, and we start to register user accounts and make available the product functionalities.

Dispute resolution

The supervisory authority is the Estonian Data Protection Inspectorate (www.aki.ee) which can be contacted via email info@aki.ee.
